

Thank you for your interest in Youth on Board's publications!

We hope that our publications help you and your organization involve youth in decision making. Youth on Board helps young people and adults think differently about each other so they can work together to change society.

Please follow the below guidelines when photocopying or downloading our publications for sharing at trainings and conferences.

1. Please purchase a full set of our publications if you plan to make more than 50 copies***

- 8 books including our bestselling 15 Points: Successfully Involving Youth in Decision Making at a cost of $84.95

2. Please display the publications in a visible location at your gathering

3. Please include a copy of the attached page with the photocopies or downloads of our publications you distribute.

The sale of our publications is an important support of our work and we appreciate your respecting all the effort and time that has gone into each publication.

Thank you again for choosing Youth on Board's publications. Your individual efforts contribute to our overall goal of revolutionizing the role of young people in society. Good luck!

---

* If you do not have funding to purchase a full set of the publications, please contact us to discuss alternatives

Dear Friend,

We hope that our publications help you and your organization involve youth in decision making. Youth on Board helps young people and adults think differently about each other so they can work together to change society.

Youth on Board may be able to help you in a variety of other ways, including:

Trainings and Workshops

Youth on Board pairs youth and adult trainers to guide your organization or community group through our innovative and interactive workshops. We tailor our services to meet the specific needs and interest areas of your organization. Enclosed is a brochure that describes our program services. If you would like a Youth on Board training team to visit your organization or community, please contact our office at 617/623-9900 x 1242.

Publications and Products

In addition to our most popular publication, 15 Points: Successfully Involving Youth in Decision Making, we have a number of booklets including ones that address legal issues, tips on good communication and youth/adult relationships. Our video At the Table: Youth Voices in Decision Making is a great way to introduce the idea of youth involvement to your organization. Additional information can also be found on our website at www.youthonboard.org.

Ongoing Support and Consultation

At Youth on Board, we understand that involving youth as full participants in communities and organizations is an ongoing process. We are available to discuss training and education options for your organization. Please contact us at 617/623-9900 x 1242 or by email at info@youthonboard.org for more information.

Thank you again for choosing Youth on Board's publications. Your individual efforts contribute to our overall goal of revolutionizing the role of young people in society.

We wish you the best of luck!

Sincerely,

The Youth on Board Staff

